1 month study intensive with Martin Kilvady

Full immersion into particular physical Craft, fuelled by love for dancing, soaked in stage experience and inspired by everyday need of feeling good.

What he is proposing is a 1 month study process of his Dance Craft. You will experience an unique amalgam of specific, personal body work methods and dancing. Martin believes that the study process will radically enlarge your movement vocabulary and teach you how to use the body language more eloquently.

For the past 25 years Martin has been present in the field of professional contemporary dance. He enjoyed studying, embracing the intricacies of creative processes, he spent countless hours with people he likes, globetrotting and presenting his work. All these experiences contributed towards the crystallisation of Martins Dancing, 'Martins Dance Style'.

For visual impressions please check, Martin Kilvady YouTube channel <https://youtu.be/I3RBXQEbc>

The program is suitable for professional dancers, circus artists, body work professionals with activate and regular physical practice, professional sports(Wo)men, martial artists or yoga practitioners.

!! UNUSUAL, read carefully !!

During the entire month, in case it is very necessary I'm opening an occasional possibility for each participant to miss a few days in order to fulfil some very urgent obligations. How much you can miss has to be evaluated case by case, discussed in detail with Martin and has to be agreed before the start and not to be changed after the agreement.
